LEE REIMANN, JD, CPA, CFP®

Vice President, Relationship Manager,
Director of Trust & Fiduciary Services
Team Member since 2021

Lee is a CPA and an attorney who brings 25+ years of professional experience to her role as a Relationship Manager. Lee spent the majority of her career as an estate-planning attorney helping clients plan for their future. However, with her accounting background, Lee also knows that for business owners the future of their business is a fundamental part of the financial plan. Therefore, Lee helps clients to take a 360-degree view of their financial future. Lee also believes in serving the community that has given her so much. She is a past president of Ingham County Bar Association; Greater Lansing Estate Planning Council; and Rotary Club of East Lansing. In addition, she is currently serving on the Michigan State Bar Foundation Board of Directors and has served on the Boards of Legal Services of South Central Michigan; Helping Women Period; and the Capital Region Community Foundation. She is also an Elder in the Presbyterian Church and a former Commissioner of the East Lansing Planning Commission.

What are your specific goals for Tri-Star Trust clients?

I want clients to know that we are listening to them and value our relationship with them and their families. I also want them to know that we can assist in planning for all of their financial goals.

What do you love most about working at Tri-Star?

The family environment.

What is your favorite quote?

“We don’t have to do all of it alone. We were never meant to.” – Brené Brown

What are your top three bucket list items?

1. To travel to Antarctica.
2. To walk the Camino de Santiago with my husband.
3. To have adventures with my grandson.
